Explore a litany of fabled tombs in ancient Egypt's royal burial grounds, beginning with the Karnak and Luxor temples, which a two-mile avenue lined with small sphinxes once connected. King Tut's tomb still remains the most famous, as it held fabulous riches when excavated. His mummy is displayed there in a climate-controlled glass box. Queen Nefertari's tomb nearby is renowned for its colourful wall paintings that have defied the ravages of time. Cruising the Nile in a traditional dahabeya boat allows time to reflect on the sights.

CAIRO CLASSICS

1 NIGHT | 24 MAY 2024
SAFAGA

In Cairo, the past often seems more relevant than the present. Standing before the legendary Great Pyramid of Giza, the sole remaining Wonder of the Ancient World, is truly unforgettable. The nearby Sphinx is a wonder in its own right, as are the stunning artefacts from King Tut's tomb now displayed in the Grand Egyptian Museum. King Djoser's well-preserved necropolis complex and Step Pyramid are time capsules, as well. Add visits to a medieval Islamic fortress and a 14th-century bazaar and come away even more enlightened.

INSPIRATIONAL ICELAND

2 NIGHTS | 28 JUNE 2024
ISAFJORDUR TO REYKJAVIK

Witness nature's drama in the Land of Fire and Ice, a moniker that reflects Iceland's volcanic forces and glacial wonders. Stand atop the rim of Grabrok Crater and behold the lava fields that a past eruption left in its wake. View one roaring waterfall after another, ranging from remote Dynjandi – the largest cascade in the Westfjords – to Glanni, a petite waterfall where elves and trolls supposedly live. Still, the ultimate experience is riding in a monster snow truck through the manmade ice tunnel that cuts through Langjokull Glacier.
