WILD BEAUTY IN ALASKA
ICY STRAIT POINT, ALASKA

Immerse yourself in truly unspoiled wilderness. Set deep in the heart of the 17-million-acre Tongass National Forest, the largest in the U.S., this port is centred around a restored salmon cannery that features a museum, restaurants and local arts and crafts shops. Take a whale-watching tour from Hoonah, the largest Tlingit village in Alaska. Drive a Jeep along the old logging roads that crisscross Chichagof Island, home to more brown bears than humans. Watch for Sitka black-tailed deer and bald eagles as you ascend Hoonah Mountain in a window-walled gondola before riding a tram past towering stands of Sitka spruce and western hemlock.

MASTER CARVERS

Klawock, Alaska

Journey to the crossroads of Prince of Wales Island and arrive at the centre of Tlingit culture in Klawock. Take the time to learn about their beliefs and traditions by visiting the Totem Park. Located in a remote and serene setting, surrounded by lush pines and hugged by the tranquil harbour, the Totem Park is home to 21 totems, making it Alaska’s most extensive collection of totem poles in a single park. Also, gain historical context about the totems relocated here from the village of Tuxekan. As you continue your day exploring this fascinating village, you will better understand Tlingit culture and the importance of the surrounding environment.

FRONTIER FAME & FORTUNE SEEKERS

SKAGWAY, ALASKA

Skagway, or 'windy place' in the native Tlingit language, was known as the gateway to the gold fields during the Klondike Gold Rush of 1897, and for many years after that. Relive the excitement of that era at the Klondike Gold Fields, where you'll see mining tents, dog sleds, an authentic dredge that extracted gold from the sand and gravel, and various exhibits with costumed characters. Learn the art of panning for gold yourself, using methods popular in the 1890s. Then take a thrilling ride on the White Pass and Yukon Railway and view spectacular waterfalls and lush foliage as the train traverses the rugged wilderness that dominates this region.

AN ICY MARVEL

HUBBARD GLACIER

Among the many words used to describe Hubbard Glacier, 'humbling' is perhaps the most appropriate for North America's largest tidewater glacier. It is 122 kilometres (76 miles) long and more than 9 kilometres (six miles) wide where it meets the ocean. It is approximately 183 metres (600 feet) tall at its terminal face — 107 metres (350 feet) exposed above the waterline and 76 metres (250 feet) below. It is also over 610 metres (2,000 feet) thick at some locations, and the terminal face's ice originally fell as snow up to 500 years ago. From your blissful vantage point in an expedition boat in Disenchantment Bay, prepare to be thrilled by the crack of this Alaskan colossus calving into a suddenly roiled sea.

CINEMATIC MOUNT BIZAN
TOKUSHIMA, JAPAN

Spread across the base of Mount Bizan, a gentle summit offering panoramic views and a scenic ropeway ride, Tokushima is the welcoming capital of Tokushima Prefecture on Shikoku, Japan's smallest main island. The city is famed for Awa-Ai, a rich indigo dye used in traditional aizome textiles, and is a meaningful stop along the sacred Shikoku Henro pilgrimage, with four of its 88 temples nearby. Culinary highlights include dishes featuring sudachi, a fragrant local citrus that adds a bright note to noodles, seafood and seasonal fare.

RHYTHM OF LIFE

MUMBAI, INDIA

Feel the buzz of South Asian life in all its colours and charisma in the city formerly known as Bombay. Local life fills the streets, bustling markets abound and you never know if you'll find a temple or a modern shopping centre down any given street. This is the capital of Maharashtra state and the Hindi film and TV industry's Bollywood capital, too. A driving tour takes you past some of Mumbai's most iconic landmarks, like the Gateway of India arch, as well as more everyday scenery — perhaps people chanting in prayer or a look at the Dhobi Ghat, where workers huddle over hundreds of pieces of clothing each day at an open-air laundry.

VILLAGE LIFE

PROBOLINGGO, INDONESIA

Situated on the north coast of East Java, Probolinggo is known by locals for its fish market but by travellers for its proximity to Bromo-Tengger-Semeru National Park, home of Indonesia's most spectacular volcano. The iconic Mount Bromo is reached via the mountain village of Cemoro Lawang; it culminates with a pony ride to the cliffs of the volcano's 9-kilometre- (6-mile) wide caldera. In Probolinggo, hop in a pedicab to see the city's Chinese temple, go for a swim at Bentar Indah Beach and be sure to buy an authentic batik keepsake.

FOODIE HAVEN

YEOSU, SOUTH KOREA

This picturesque city encompasses the 365 islands — 49 are inhabited — of the sprawling Yeosu peninsula on South Korea's East China Sea coast. Historically critical as headquarters of the Korean navy during the Joseon (Yi) dynasty (1392–1910), Yeosu underwent a dramatic modernisation when it hosted the 2012 World Expo and today offers a blend of verdant hills, glistening seas and striking architecture. Yeosu is a renowned foodie haven, with restaurants serving traditional fare like egg cockles, gulgui (grilled oyster) and spicy kimchi made with locally grown mustard leaves.

OVERNIGHT IN PORT

MODERN TO SUBLIME
TOKYO, JAPAN

The sprawling metropolis of Tokyo is an engaging capital city of 12 million people. Yet, the bustle will seem incredibly distant from the top of the Tokyo Tower, the second-highest structure in Japan. Be sure to journey to the Ginza shopping and entertainment district, where the merchandise tends to be more modern and fashionable. Here you will also find one of the best culinary scenes in the country. For a more traditional view, journey to Asakusa to visit the city's oldest temple, Senso-ji. Adjacent to the temple is a five-storey pagoda, Shinto shrine, the Asakusa Shrine, as well as many shops with traditional goods in the Nakamise-dori.

AUSTRALIA & NEW ZEALAND

TATAPOURI REEF WALK & STINGRAY FEEDING
GISBORNE, NEW ZEALAND

Wade out to a rock shelf off Tatapouri and watch the abundant marine life such as stingrays, fish and octopuses swimming around the reef. Marine life is plentiful here, and chances are you will see Down Under’s most iconic sea creatures. The water is usually teeming with short-tail rays, which look particularly graceful as they glide along the shallow reef. Eagle rays are also common and can easily be distinguished from stingrays by their long, whip-like tails. Both species feed on fish, so you can also expect to see yellowtail kingfish, which in turn feed on trevally.

SAGUENAY, QUÉBEC

With your ship providing a most dramatic vantage point, take in the high, pine-studded cliffs of majestic Saguenay Fjord as you sail its entirety from the St. Lawrence River to its tip at the port city of Saguenay. Explore the town's French Chicoutimi district, stopping at La Pulperie de Chicoutimi museum for a picturesque look at local history and Le Musée de la Petite Maison Blanche, a symbol of the town's fortitude after a devastating 1996 flood. Venture out to discover some of Québec's most picturesque villages and the staggering beauty of Saguenay National Park, perhaps kayaking the calm waters of Cape Trinity.

LUSH ISLAND
FORT-DE-FRANCE, MARTINIQUE

You will be cheering 'Vive la France' during your time in Fort-de-France. The capital of Martinique boasts beautiful French architecture, such as the Cathédrale Saint-Louis, several French-built forts and pristine beaches that rival those of the Riviera. All roads lead to La Savane, a serene central park overseen by a statue of Empress Josephine. Among the must-see attractions for nature lovers is the Balata Tropical Gardens in Martinique's lush countryside. Take in fragrant flowers, exotic water lilies, rare indigenous plants and shaded trails. Stroll through the footbridge situated in the trees for the ultimate vantage point.

BOHEMIA

KEY WEST, FLORIDA

Discover the relaxed pace, storybook architecture and carnival-like street life of the southernmost point of the continental U.S. — the famed bohemian enclave of Key West. This flower-scented little city island is a haven for famous writers, former hippies, and sun seekers from all over the world. You are sure to experience it all as the island is just 3.2 kilometres (2 miles) wide by 6.4 kilometres (4 miles) long. Beyond its sun-soaked streets, Key West invites you to indulge in moments both timeless and decadent — from sipping hand-shaken mojitos beneath swaying palms to exploring private gardens once visited by presidents and painters alike. Whether you choose to sail turquoise waters aboard a glass-bottom catamaran or unwind in the shaded elegance of a historic porch, the island's carefree spirit is matched only by its quiet sophistication.

LIMING & LOUNGING IN ST. KITTS

BASSETERRE, ST. KITTS & NEVIS

Gently rising from the shimmering waters off St. Kitts, a stunning array of white, grey and black sand beaches trace the island's perimeter. Lush green mountains form the interior, providing an ideal habitat for the monkeys that seem to outnumber the people on the island. On St. Kitts, the locals have a special word for hanging out: liming. The most popular place to lime is in the sand and the sun while the sounds of reggae drift in from the beachside bars. When you're ready for a change of pace, experience zip-lining through the Valley of the Giants Rainforest or consider exploring Brimstone Hill Fortress National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

FALMOUTH, JAMAICA

GO WITH THE FLOW

FALMOUTH, JAMAICA

Falmouth stands out as one of the Caribbean's most authentically preserved historic towns, where laid-back island life meets echoes of a colonial past. Once a booming hub for sugar exports, the town still boasts stately Georgian mansions alongside quaint wooden cottages. You'll find real-deal jerk spots near the waterfront, and for something slower-paced, float down the Martha Brae River on a bamboo raft, gliding through thick greenery and passing tropical trees like the ackee. Notable sights include the old courthouse and St. Peter's Anglican Church.

THE GEM OF NAPLES
SORRENTO/CAPRI, ITALY

The island of Capri is the gem of the Bay of Naples and easily reached via ferry or hydrofoil from Sorrento. In Capri, you will marvel at the whitewashed homes and villas, fragrant lemon trees and flower-filled courtyards. While on the island, you should be sure to visit the Grotta Azzurra (Blue Grotto), which is only accessible by boat. Once inside the cave, witness the water's sapphire colour, which is caused by the light refraction from the hidden opening in the rock.

NEW PORT

ADRIATIC ALLURE
ROVINJ, CROATIA

Rovinj, perched on the western edge of Croatia's Istrian Peninsula, rises from the Adriatic like a sun-warmed mosaic of stone and sea. Once a humble fishing port, the town now charms visitors with its old Venetian houses packed tightly along the waterfront and narrow cobbled streets that wind their way up to the hilltop Church of St. Euphemia. Within the Old Town, discover art galleries, tucked-away boutiques and open-air cafés filled with the scent of espresso. Indulge in Italian-inspired cuisine paired with crisp local wines. Then head inland to explore Istria's lush countryside, where medieval hill towns, rolling vineyards, olive groves and the earthy aroma of truffles create a feast for all the senses.

PIOMBINO, ITALY

GEM BY THE SEA

PIOMBINO, ITALY

Perched on a coastal promontory in southern Tuscany, Piombino blends ancient history with seaside charm. Just beyond the town, the Archaeological Park of Baratti and Populonia reveals the ruins of a once-thriving Etruscan city. In town, a stroll through the medieval gateway leads to Piazza Bovio, offering sweeping views of the Tuscan Archipelago. Piombino is also the gateway to Elba, where visitors can sunbathe on pristine beaches or explore Napoleon's island retreat. With historic landmarks, nearby archaeological treasures, and easy access to some of Italy's loveliest shores, Piombino invites discovery at every turn.

ANCIENT DISCOVERIES
ARGOSTOLI, GREECE

Journey beyond the turquoise bay with colourful fishing boats of Argostoli to visit the archaeological museum and explore the rich artefacts of the Mycenaean culture. Also be sure to travel to the Drogarati Cave to witness incredible stalactites hang from the ceiling like jagged curtains, and ancient stalagmites reach up from the rocky floor in red, orange, yellow and white. Inside the 100-million-year-old cave's Chamber of Exaltation, the acoustics are considered near perfect, and concert events are often held in its capacious interior. Even the famed opera soprano Maria Callas sang here.

MILOS, GREECE

PAINTED HORIZONS

MILOS, GREECE

With more than 70 beaches brushed in hues of crimson, rose and amber, all shimmering against the turquoise Aegean, Milos might just be the most colourful jewel among the Greek Isles. The surreal beauty of Sarakiniko, where white volcanic rock shapes a dreamscape like the moon, is unforgettable. Kleftiko's dramatic cliffs and secret sea caves tell tales of pirates and time. Wander the cobbled alleys of Plaka, the island's chalk-white capital, where the famed Venus de Milo was discovered. Then unwind in Pollonia, a quaint fishing village where you can sip local wines and sample cheeses that are carefully aged in volcanic caves.

DIOCLETIAN'S PALACE

SPLIT, CROATIA

In Split, pay a visit to the retirement palace of Diocletian, deemed by UNESCO as one of the best-preserved Roman royal residences in the world. Built between AD 295 and 305, the imposing ruins of the Roman emperor's home can be found throughout the heart of Split, the city that grew up around the palace. Diocletian spared no expense in the construction, importing marble from Italy and Greece, plus columns and sphinxes from Egypt. The palace was built from lustrous white limestone from the nearby island of Brac. Within the palace boundaries are over 200 buildings, monuments, shops and restaurants, plus homes for about 3,000 people.

IDYLLIC CANARY ISLANDS

SANTA CRUZ DE TENERIFE, CANARY ISLANDS

Explore San Cristóbal de La Laguna in the idyllic Agüere Valley. Deemed a UNESCO World Heritage site, the city is immensely historic and served as the island's capital until 1723. Then, further inland, visit Tacoronte, a village nestled in one of the island's most fertile regions. Apples, figs and other fruit trees are abundant, but it's the flavourful grape that has brought Tacoronte its greatest acclaim as a wine producer. Be sure to sample its finest vintages at the renowned Bodegas Álvaro and tour the Casa del Vino, where you will learn about the fascinating history of wine production throughout the Canary Islands.

A MAJESTIC METROPOLIS
GLASGOW, SCOTLAND

Stately Victorian mansions and modern structural masterpieces are the pride of this ‘Dear Green Place’ on the River Clyde. Long Scotland’s trading hub, Glasgow has undergone a 21st-century cultural renaissance. Roam some of the UK’s finest art galleries — you’ll find masterpieces galore at both the Kelvingrove and Hunterian galleries — plus thousands of artefacts detailing Glasgow’s history at the Riverside Museum. Soak up the fabled Scottish scenery of Loch Lomond before a tasting at the handsome Glengoyne Distillery. See (and hear) for yourself why the city’s pub and music scenes are legendary, and perhaps avail yourself of some of the best shopping in the British Isles.

GATEWAY TO THE FJORDS BERGEN, NORWAY

Bergen is famous for the seven mountains surrounding the city centre, in particular the iconic Mount Fløyen. A scenic eight-minute journey aboard a funicular takes you to the top of Mount Fløyen, which rises over 305 metres (1,000 feet) above sea level. Complement your ride on the funicular with a vigorous 45-minute hike toward Skomakerdiket Lake and on to the peak of Rundemanen, ascending to a height of 600 metres (1,870 feet). From this vantage point, the views are simply spectacular.

Expect steep cliffs, narrow fjords and jagged mountains covered with greener-than-green pastures on the southeast coast of Streymoy, the largest of the isles that comprise the Faroe Islands , an autonomous territory of Denmark. Emerald-turfed houses and modern buildings stand side by side in Tórshavn, the country’s capital. Admire red -painted buildings that date back centuries in Tinganes, Tórshavn’s oldest section, where Norwegian colonists placed their ‘ting’ (parliament) in 825. Visit the quaint, white, slate-roofed Tórshavn Cathedral and modern Nordic House, which is said to capture the essence of Faroese culture. Head to Streymoy’s mountainous north for otherworldly scenery, Viking-founded villages and wild waterways.

VOLCANIC GRANDEUR

HEIMAAY, ICELAND

This small, vibrant isle is the largest of Iceland's Westman Islands and hosts the largest nesting population of Atlantic puffins anywhere in the world. The waters around this volcanic locale are often ideal for spotting various marine life, including orcas and fin whales. In January 1973, a vast fissure burst open, creating a new volcano called Eldfell that buried 400 buildings and provided enough geothermal energy to heat Heimaey for nine years. Exhibits at the Eldheimar Museum provide more eruption details, though the greatest exhibit of all is the 201-metre (660-foot) high volcano. You'll also find a 15th-century harbour fort, a world-class aquarium and a folk museum.

CASTLE IN THE CLOUDS

EDINBURGH, SCOTLAND

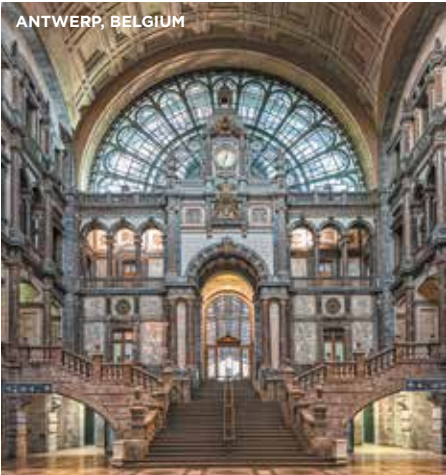

Take in the spectacular Edinburgh Castle sitting atop an outcrop of sheer granite cliffs. It anchors one end of the famed Royal Mile, an area approximately one mile long that extends down to Holyrood Palace, the official Scottish residence of King Charles III. As you crisscross the streets in this phenomenally scenic Old Town, you will get a sense of what life here was like centuries ago. The streets are busy, narrow and lined with towering buildings Edinburgh-born Robert Louis Stevenson once described as 'a dream in masonry'.

ENGAGING & UNSPOILED
SANTANDER, SPAIN

Framed by green, mountainous landscapes and white beaches, you'll quickly ease your pace at this picturesque bayside city in Spain's Cantabria region. Built atop a glorious peninsula and used as a summer residence by Spanish royals in the early 20th century, the Magdalena Palace offers a taste of history and panoramic views of Santander Bay. Centro Botín, which reinvigorated the city's seafront upon its opening in 2017, has been described as "Santander's Guggenheim" — a nod to the Frank Gehry-designed museum in nearby Bilbao. In the city's fishing district, dine on traditional local cuisine such as fried squid or fisherman-style clams.

THE GUGGENHEIM MUSEUM
BILBAO, SPAIN

ARCHITECTURAL WONDER

BILBAO, SPAIN

Bilbao has many things to do, see and eat, and its urban beauty provides the perfect setting to keep you in awe. The Guggenheim Museum Bilbao, designed by Frank Gehry, takes up much of the modern landscape, clad in swirls of titanium, limestone and huge glass panes. Another architectural wonder is the Vizcaya Bridge, a towering latticework of metal. If the design reminds you of the Eiffel Tower, it's no coincidence; the bridge's architect was a student of Gustave Eiffel.

CHILEAN ADVENTURES

PUNTA ARENAS, CHILE

Although located in a fairly remote part of the world, Punta Arenas is a surprisingly large town with over 100,000 residents and ample opportunities for adventure. You can start with a stroll through the tree-filled central square of Plaza Muñoz Gamero and stop at a street vendor for a savoury sopaipilla: a fried, puffed flatbread served with a spicy Chilean salsa. Marvel at the stunning pastoral landscape of a local sheep farm or simply take a moment to reflect while gazing out over the mysterious blue waters of the Strait of Magellan. For an excursion you'll never forget, visit Magdalena Island to watch the entertaining antics of the resident penguins.

A LITERARY DELIGHT
DUBLIN, IRELAND

As it's the birthplace of some of the world's greatest literary figures — Beckett, Joyce, Shaw, Wilde, Yeats — one can't help but wonder what it is about Dublin that so inspires. If you spend some time in the city, you'll begin to understand. It's the strong sense of community embodied in its pub culture, in the churches seemingly on every corner, and in the sprawling parks where residents gather to commune with nature. From the ancient books in Trinity College's Old Library to the story of Guinness and his iconic beer, Dublin's heritage is rich indeed. So, enjoy a few pints at a local pub, make some new friends and see if inspiration strikes.

Snorkel in crystal-clear waters teeming with vibrant tropical fish, or stroll through the lively Straw Market to discover handwoven Bahamian crafts and one-of-a-kind souvenirs. ROYAL NAVAL DOCKYARD, BERMUDA

BASES , BEACHES & BOATS

ROYAL NAVAL DOCKYARD, BERMUDA

Bermuda's Royal Naval Dockyard was originally built for the British Navy as a base between Halifax and the West Indies. This Georgian-style fort later served as a North Atlantic base during both World Wars. Learn more about this fascinating historical site on a guided walking tour, and then enjoy the many shops, museums, pubs and restaurants nearby. Embrace Bermuda's laid-back island atmosphere by taking a barefoot stroll along the pink sand beaches, or observe the barrier reefs' abundance of colourful fish, corals and sea turtles on a glass-bottom boat ride. Make sure to spend some time in St. George, the oldest inhabited town of English origin in the New World and a UNESCO World Heritage site.

RUGGED BEAUTY
PONTA DELGADA, PORTUGAL

Savour the unparalleled natural wonders of this splendid volcanic island located at a crossroads in the Atlantic. See its stunning landscape, thermal pools, natural steam vents, volcanic lakes, subtropical flora, plantations and picturesque towns filled with perfectly preserved 17th- and 18th-century buildings. Be sure to visit the village of Sete Cidades with its twin lakes. This area is considered to be one of the most beautiful natural settings in the Azores. Viewing the lakes from the Vista do Rei viewpoint, you'll see that one lake looks blue and accordingly is called Lagoa Azul, while the other appears green and is named Lagoa Verde.
