“

This was our first Regent cruise and we had the most amazing time. We haven't cruised in 25 years and this was way different than anything we ever experienced before. It was amazing! The crew was amazing. Our suite was so beautiful. We loved waking up in a different port every day, not knowing exactly what we were going to see.

Icy Strait Point's Spasski River Valley is home to diverse wildlife — most famously grizzly bears. From perfectly camouflaged viewing platforms, you can watch the brown bears feed on salmon in the river. The journey through the valley is a naturalist's dream. The bogs and forests along the river are peaceful, serene and untouched. Your guide will point you in the right direction, teach you about the fascinating local flora and fauna, and even find the wild berries that the Sitka black-tailed deer love so much. And don't forget to look skyward for bald eagles, as this iconic bird flies these friendly skies in search of prey.

ICY BLUE WATERS & FROSTY FIELDS

JUNEAU, ALASKA

Alaska's capital, Juneau is accessible only by sea or air because of the dense forest to the east. Like many other settlements, it came into being after a large deposit of gold was found nearby in the 1880s — more than $150 million worth. Now, one of its greatest draws is its proximity to the astounding Mendenhall Glacier, a nearly 14-mile-long (23 kilometres) wonder that is part of the vast Juneau Icefield. You can enjoy it by plane or helicopter, canoe or kayak, on foot or with the help of sled dogs. But, it's not just the frozen water that's spectacular. Mendenhall Lake is a picture-perfect mountain lake, offering up-close access to icebergs and the glacier itself.

SKAGWAY, ALASKA

FEATURED PORT OF CALL

A GOLDEN STORY SKAGWAY, ALASKA

Take a journey back in time to Skagway, where six blocks of the small downtown have been designated a National Historic District. The definition of a boomtown, Skagway saw its first permanent structure go up just 10 years before the gold rush. William Moore, a ship's captain, saw a number of miners working claims in the region and thought it might be ripe for development. He was right. In 1897 the gold rush began, and more than 10,000 people passed through town or lived haphazardly in shacks and tents. A few years later, the gold dried up and so did the temporary residents, leaving behind a great small town with a fascinating story for travellers to discover.

FIRM FOUNDATIONS & CULINARY DELIGHTS
MIYAKO, JAPAN

An important fishing port known for its salmon, trout and mackerel, Miyako, positioned on the estuary of the Hei River facing Miyako Bay and the Pacific, was severely impacted by the 2011 tsunami. The Taro Kanko Hotel, which had its lower two floors washed away but remained standing, is today preserved as a symbol of Miyako's resilience and strength. Sample the region's rich culinary delicacies that include creamy sea urchin and a unique cookie called ika senbei made with squid. A jagged promontory of white rocks along Jodogahama Beach is a picturesque must-see.

CITY OF PEACE

HIROSHIMA, JAPAN

On Japan's largest island, Honshu, where Tokyo and Kyoto are also located, Hiroshima became known worldwide on 6 August 1945, when it became subject to the first atomic bomb attack in history. Ever synonymous with that tragic moment in World War II, the city has rebuilt and overcome its turbulent past. Today, Hiroshima is known as the 'City of Peace' and is home to two UNESCO World Heritage sites, including the Itsukushima Shrine and the Hiroshima Peace Memorial, honouring the victims of the atomic bomb. World-class museums here house Japanese paintings and Renaissance art in a modern city that's been reborn with peace at its heart.

CITY SIGHTS & CULTURAL FLAIR

HO CHI MINH CITY, VIETNAM

It's impossible not to get swept up in the electric energy of Vietnam's largest city. Alive and moving with motorbikes, markets and marvels along every byway, Ho Chi Minh City is a sight to behold. Once the capital of the French protectorate and South Vietnam, the city formerly known as Saigon is a modern economic powerhouse where you can shop for everything from antiques and designer knockoffs to inexpensive souvenirs in the Ben Thanh Market. Visit Reunification Palace (the site of the 1975 fall of Saigon) or just get swept up in the flow of street life (and street food!), surrounded by towering skyscrapers and French Colonial facades.

RIVERS & BEACHES
PUERTO PRINCESA, PHILIPPINES

Puerto Princesa is the capital of Palawan, Philippines, located just over 300 nautical miles southwest of Manila. It is said that the city was named after a mythical young woman, and Puerto Princesa certainly lives up to her legendary splendour with miles of pristine beaches and lush wilderness. Be sure to visit the underground river — one of the longest in the world — deemed a UNESCO World Heritage site. Beachgoers should head to Honda Bay, consisting of several islets that are the best location for snorkeling and island hopping.

FRONTIER
WILDERNESS

COOKTOWN, AUSTRALIA

Scenically located on Cape York Peninsula in Far North Queensland, Cooktown is the site of one of Australia's earliest European settlements. Named for famous explorer Captain Cook, who landed his ship Endeavour there in 1770, Cooktown is known for its pristine beaches, waterfalls, hidden gardens, and magnificent mountain views. Cruise the Endeavour River for a look at dozens of species of mangroves and a nearby rainforest. Along the way, you'll see crocodiles on the riverbank, white-bellied sea eagles flying overhead and colourful lorikeets, sunbirds and orioles emerging from the trees. Continue exploring with a trip to Black Mountain, a towering hill of black granite rocks. Created by erosion, it is the source of myths and legends for local Aboriginal tribes.

From Napier, make the journey through the rolling pastures, steep gullies and breathtaking inclines of stunning Cape Kidnappers to witness the world's largest and most-accessible mainland nesting place for gannets. These handsome, quirky members of the booby family nest high on the sea cliffs. Voyage Highlight
 GOLDEN FOLIAGE

Frequently lauded as North America's most European city, a claim citizens of Québec City may consider an absurdité, Montréal bursts with centuries of history, astounding landmarks and French cuisine. Stroll the cobbled streets of Old Town, a once-walled area where Montréal was founded in 1642, to the national landmark of Notre-Dame Basilica, a 19th-century Gothic Revival masterpiece. Sample cheeses and maple-flavoured delicacies along lively Saint Laurent Boulevard. Wander the wooded slopes and grassy meadows of famed Parc du Mont-Royal. And no trip to Montréal is complete without trying poutine, a signature French-Canadian dish consisting of fries smothered in cheese curds and gravy. Bon appétit!

MARTHA BRAE RIVER FROM FALMOUTH, JAMAICA

INCLUDED & UNLIMITED SHORE EXCURSION

GO WITH THE FLOW FALMOUTH, JAMAICA

Falmouth stands out as one of the Caribbean's most authentically preserved historic towns, where laid-back island life meets echoes of a colonial past. Once a booming hub for sugar exports, the town still boasts stately Georgian mansions alongside quaint wooden cottages. You'll find real-deal jerk spots near the waterfront, and for something slower-paced, float down the Martha Brae River on a bamboo raft, gliding through thick greenery and passing tropical trees like the ackee. Notable sights include the old courthouse and St. Peter's Anglican Church.

POINTE-À-PITRE, GUADELOUPE

Witness the gorgeous cascades of Carbet Waterfalls in Guadeloupe National Park. It is the perfect reward for your hike on a winding path through the forest. Be sure to bring your camera to capture the sight of the towering middle falls as they thunder through the jungle. The falls have long been admired. Indigenous Caribs referred to Guadeloupe as Karukera, meaning 'Island of Beautiful Waters.' If you prefer an easier walk to a waterfall, there's La Cascade aux Écrevisses (Crayfish Falls), where you can bathe under the rushing, crystalline water.

Gently rising from the shimmering waters off St. Kitts, a stunning array of white, grey and black sand beaches trace the island's perimeter. Lush green mountains form the interior, providing an ideal habitat for the monkeys that seem to outnumber the people on the island. On St. Kitts, the locals have a special word for hanging out: liming. The most popular place to lime is in the sand and the sun while the sounds of reggae drift in from the beachside bars. When you're ready for a change of pace, experience zip lining through the Valley of the Giants Rainforest or consider exploring Brimstone Hill Fortress National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

HISTORIC AT EVERY TURN

VALLETTA, MALTA

With so much to see and do, it is no wonder that the entire city of Valletta was inscribed as a UNESCO World Heritage site. The centerpiece is the impressive 19th-century Mosta Dome, visible from almost anywhere on the island, with its inlaid marble floor and the gilded, carved stone flowers set around the interior dome. For a tranquil afternoon, journey to the island of Gozo and tour the two massive Ggantija Temples that archaeologists believe to be the world's oldest freestanding structures.

PAINTED HORIZONS
MILOS, GREECE

With more than 70 beaches brushed in hues of crimson, rose and amber, all shimmering against the turquoise Aegean, Milos might just be the most colourful jewel among the Greek Isles. The surreal beauty of Sarakiniko, where white volcanic rock shapes a dreamscape like the moon, is unforgettable. Kleftiko's dramatic cliffs and secret sea caves tell tales of pirates and time. Wander the cobbled alleys of Plaka, the island's chalk-white capital, where the famed Venus de Milo was discovered. Then unwind in Pollonia, a quaint fishing village where you can sip local wines and sample cheeses that are carefully aged in volcanic caves.

PALATE PLEASER

CINQUE TERRE, ITALY

One of the most pristine areas in the Mediterranean, Cinque Terre is named for the five small neighbouring towns — Riomaggiore, Corniglia, Manarola, Vernazza and Monterosso. The towns couldn't be more delightful or unspoiled, which earned Cinque Terre the distinction of being both a national park and a UNESCO-protected territory. After a day of exploring, indulge your palate with the delicacy this region is most known for: stuffed mussels. The mussels are opened, the meat is split, and a savoury spoonful of stuffing made of vegetables, bread crumbs and ground mussels is placed in the shell and then simmered in tomato sauce.

LIMITLESS EXPERIENCES

DUBROVNIK, CROATIA

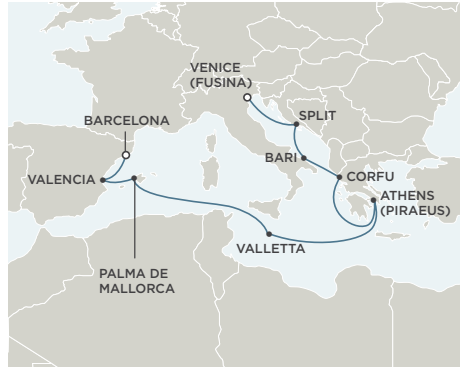

Lord Byron was right when he called splendid Dubrovnik 'the pearl of the Adriatic'. Dubrovnik is one of the most picturesque cities of the Mediterranean. Surrounded by ancient walls, this scenic fortress city was once a forceful maritime power. Every excursion you take will give you glimpses of its medieval walled Old Town, which juts provocatively into the sea. This part of Croatia is stunningly beautiful with craggy bluffs and hidden coves. Whatever you decide to do ashore, endless adventures await, whether you embark on a bicycle tour through the scenic Konavle Valley or savour the local fare and wine while enjoying Dalmatian music and songs performed by resident musicians and singers.

BIRTHPLACE OF GODS
MYKONOS, GREECE

In Mykonos, October reveals a more intimate side of the island. With summer crowds gone and warm days lingering under brilliant blue skies, it's the ideal time to admire the iconic Cycladic architecture and wander the narrow lanes of Chora at an unhurried pace. Cafés spill gently into whitewashed squares, inviting long afternoons of people-watching like a true local. Just beyond lies Delos, the mythical birthplace of Apollo and Artemis, where ancient ruins — from the Sanctuary of Apollo to intricate mosaics — stand bathed in luminous autumn light, waiting to be explored in peaceful reflection.

PAESTUM FROM SALERNO, ITALY

INCLUDED & UNLIMITED SHORE EXCURSION

CENTRE OF EVERYTHING

SALERNO, ITALY

Salerno is at times overshadowed by neighbouring Sorrento, but this stunning gateway to Amalfi has its own appeal. From Salerno you can tour Paestum, an ancient Greek city founded in the 7th century BCE offering some of the most impressive ancient Greek ruins found anywhere in the world. Its Temple of Hera dates to 550 BCE — 500 years earlier than many of the buildings you'd see at Pompeii. Speaking of Pompeii, you can easily access this site from Salerno and see the town forever known for the catastrophic eruption of Mount Vesuvius that buried it under ash and pumice in CE 79, with its plaster casts of victims.

INCLUDED & UNLIMITED SHORE EXCURSION

ROSE OF THE BALTIC RIGA, LATVIA

There is certainly no shortage of legends and tales in Northern Europe, but few come close to the love story of the 'Rose of Turaida.' By the Turaida church under an old linden tree, you will find the grave of the heroine of a true love story from the 17th century. Four centuries later, newlyweds continue to leave flowers on her grave. Also witness the 13th-century Turaida Castle and the fortification tower where you can enjoy the picturesque landscape from a bird's-eye view.

SOUTH PACIFIC

Four extraordinary South Pacific voyages — spanning 18 to 21 nights — carry you through storied islands and crystalline lagoons where every horizon feels like a dream brought to life. Emerald peaks rise above turquoise waters, palm-lined beaches glow beneath golden sunsets and vibrant island cultures welcome you with warmth and rhythm. Along the way, enjoy up to 49 included excursions that reveal the traditions, natural wonders and hidden corners of these remarkable islands. Coveted overnight stays in destinations such as Bora Bora and Papeete allow time to linger, whether savouring the gentle pace of island life by day or watching the stars shimmer over tranquil lagoons by night. Each moment unfolds in a setting of rare beauty, where the South Pacific reveals itself as one of the world's most enchanting places to explore.

FEATURED PORT OF CALL
FORGED IN FIRE
 PAGO PAGO, AMERICAN SAMOA

Traditional fire dancing in Pago Pago is nothing short of mesmerising. As twilight sets in and the air cools, warriors take to the shore, barefoot, fearless and twirling flaming knives and wooden sticks with hypnotic rhythm. Known as ailao afi, this ancient Samoan warrior dance began as a show of strength and agility, now evolved into a breathtaking display of cultural pride. And what of the South Pacific at dusk? It is simply too beautiful for words. The sky ignites in fiery hues of orange before being quelled by lavender and pink.

TRANSOCEANIC CROSSINGS

Gliding across the Atlantic, the horizon stretches endlessly, a ribbon of blue where sky and sea meet in quiet harmony. Days unfold with a gentle rhythm as the ship carries you between continents, offering time to savour every moment on board. Then, at last, a coastline appears — terracotta rooftops glowing in the sunlight, fishing boats bobbing in the harbour and the lush mountains of Madeira rising into the clouds. The air is fragrant with salt and citrus, and there is a singular thrill in arriving not by plane, but by sea, just as travellers did centuries ago. These new, two-week Transoceanic Voyages celebrate the romance of the crossing, where unhurried days at sea and captivating arrivals ashore create a journey defined by anticipation, discovery and the timeless allure of travel by water.

THE HEATHER PASSAGE

All cruises offer opportunities to make new friends, but it's different when you're crossing an ocean together. A shared spirit of adventure grows with each day and night at sea, a camaraderie begun over chats at Coffee Connection or across game tables in the Card Room that perhaps lead to deeper conversations over expertly crafted cocktails in one of our lively lounges. After sumptuous meals at one of our speciality restaurants, catch the high-calibre shows and performances in the Constellation Theatre or dance your nights away to the live tunes of our Regent Signature Orchestra.

FUNCHAL, PORTUGAL

Tour the Old Town of Funchal, an area first settled in the 1420s. There, be sure to visit the Mercado dos Lavradores, an Art Deco-style market that sells everything from fresh produce to locally grown flowers to seafood. Choose to go beyond the city's bustle and explore the largest surviving laurel forest on Madeira Island. Recognised as a World Heritage site by UNESCO, Laurissilva is considered a living legacy. This forest dates back millions of years to the Tertiary Period — giving you a glimpse into the way the earth looked before the appearance of man.

ANTARCTICA

WORLD CRUISE

Over the span of 150 nights, Eras of Exploration follows the great arcs of human discovery, from ancient empires to seafaring kingdoms, and from golden ages to modern marvels.

Your passage begins deep within South America, sailing along the Amazon before descending to the ice-bound majesty of Antarctica. From there, follow the path of the early Polynesians across the South Pacific, stepping ashore on islands shaped by myth and migration. Explore Australia's wild coastlines before heading north to Southeast Asia, where ancient temples and modern skylines share the same horizon.

Cross into the Indian Ocean to discover the domes, deserts and dynasties of India and Arabia — from the sandstone cities of Petra to the sacred banks of the Nile. Finally, sail into the Mediterranean, where each port offers a page from history and where this journey culminates in the Eternal City.

REGENT SUITE
SEVEN SEAS GRANDEUR®

THE SUITE LIFE

Discover a sanctuary of space and sophistication in your elegantly appointed suite, where luxury and comfort are seamlessly intertwined. Simply open your door and let the indulgence begin.

SKYVIEW REGENT SUITE ON Seven Seas Prestige

As the door opens and you enter the foyer, a hush of awe takes hold — before you stretches a world of space, light and sea. Welcome to the Skyview Regent Suite.

The morning light illuminates two storeys of wraparound balconies. Use your private in-suite elevator to glide between levels, offering effortless access to your personal sanctuary. Whether you're enjoying breakfast beneath the sky or entertaining friends in your grand living room with a marble bar and ocean views, every detail is a study in rarefied living. When the sky turns violet, and hours pass in a swirl of night air and briny mist, you will be dreaming of the places that await your exploration. Rest with ease in a bed handcrafted in Italy that has been thoughtfully chosen to cradle you in the kind of comfort that only dreams dare describe.

Your journey extends far beyond the suite. Step ashore with your own personal car and guide, unlocking destinations on your terms. Begin each day with a Serene Spa & Wellness® ritual, secured with priority reservations, and return to the discreet care of your personal butler, who ensures your every wish is anticipated. A bottle of Dom Pérignon awaits, alongside Louis XIII cognac by Rémy Martin — a fitting welcome to a life of rare privilege. Host an intimate gathering in The Study, your private dining room for up to twelve guests, or simply wrap yourself in a cashmere throw as ocean breezes drift through your balcony's open doors. From designer bath amenities to bespoke spa accessories, every element is curated to heighten your comfort and style. This is not just a suite. It's the pinnacle of seagoing ultra-luxury.

SKYVIEW SUITES

Drift into relaxation in the Skyview Aura Suite, where quiet space feels infinite. Find calm in the glow of the Skyview Luna Suite, bathed in soft moonlight. Or rise with the sun in the radiant Skyview Sola Suite. The three Skyview suites — Aura, Luna and Sola — are three distinct expressions of the same exclusive category — each with its own layout, character and connection. Though each suite has its own personality, all share the same elevated experience: private second-floor Skyview terraces complete with shaded areas and jetted tubs, in-suite elevators and upper-level balconies that extend onto Deck 15. This space is part of each individual suite and is accessible only from within the suite itself.

REGENT SUITE ON Seven Seas Grandeur

If you've ever dreamed of staying in a floating palace, the Regent Suite is exactly that. Spanning an extraordinary 473 m² (5,089 sq. ft.), this opulent retreat offers breathtaking panoramic ocean views, a wraparound balcony and a skylit, glass-enclosed parlour. Designed by world-renowned Studio DADO, every element — from bespoke furniture to hand-selected artwork — evokes the elegance of an international collector's home.

A VIEW FROM THE TOP

The opulence begins at the entrance, where Italian marble sets the tone for what awaits inside. A striking bronze sculpture of golden flames captures the eye, and beyond it, an unobstructed 270-degree view of the horizon. Enjoy these stunning vistas either on deck in your Tressse Minipool, or in the glass-enclosed parlour, offering serene skylight relaxation.

SAIL AWAY IN STYLE

After a perfect day ashore, your butler arranges refreshing beverages and delicious small plates as you settle in your Regent Suite. From the sanctuary of your private balcony, watch the ship sail gracefully away from breathtaking Caribbean islands. Golden sunsets, gentle waves and indulgent services blend into an unforgettable moment of tropical bliss.
